The Realty Investment Club of Houston Celebrates its 30th Year

Houston, Texas – July 9, 2009 – The Realty Investment Club of Houston (RICH) will mark its thirtieth year of serving real estate entrepreneurs at its monthly general meeting from 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Saturday, July 11th at the University Hilton Hotel, 4800 Calhoun Road.

Founded in 1979, RICH provides education, networking and advocacy for Houston area real estate investors. With 1,398 members, RICH is one of the oldest and largest non-profit real estate investor trade associations in the U.S.

“RICH members can attend meetings, classes, workshops and focus groups addressing a variety of legal, financial, landlording, marketing, property acquisition and rehab issues to help beginners and advanced investors succeed,” says James Robert Smith, RICH president and 23-year member. “The time to invest in real estate is now, when acquisition prices are near historic lows.”

The first speaker at the meeting will present “The Power of the Mastermind.” The popular “Deal-a-Minute” session will follow, giving attendees the opportunity to purchase residential and commercial properties from RICH members. Next, a panel of seasoned real estate investors will field questions from the audience and share their experiences and knowledge of the industry. Then, RICH will celebrate its 30th anniversary with an old fashioned cake and ice cream party, complete with gifts and door prizes for all. There is a $20 guest fee.

More information on RICH’s Birthday Bash is available at www.richclub.org, or by calling (281) 919-6446 or (281) 224-3232.
